

The Race To Be The 51st State

Who will be the 51st state? California, Illinois, Oregon, and Washington are just a few currently in the race. Fueled by disparities between urban and rural, this "fever" is nothing new. Consider these quotes from Thomas Jefferson:

"The mobs of great cities add just so much to support of pure government as sores do to the strength of the human body,"

"I think our governments will remain virtuous for many centuries as long as they are chiefly agricultural; and this will be as long as there shall be vacant lands in any part of America. When they get plied upon one another in large cities, as in Europe, they will become corrupt as in Europe."

"I view great cities as pestilential to the morals, the health and the liberties of man. True, they nourish some of the elegant arts; but the useful ones can thrive elsewhere; and less perfection in the others, with more health, virtue and freedom, would be my choice."

Or William Penn:

"The country life is to be preferred, for there we see the works of God; but in cities little else but the works of men. And the one makes a better subject for contemplation than the other."
