

Urgent Care Doctors Calling Lockdowns To Be Lifted Promptly Censored By YouTube

April 28, 2020

A pair of urgent care doctors in Bakersfield, California are calling attention to clinical data that prompted them to call for an end to lockdowns.

In an interview with ABC23 last Wednesday, Drs. Dan Erickson and Artin Massihi said their facilities have tested over 5,200 patients for the coronavirus, amounting to roughly half of all tests done in Kern County. According to their data, the coronavirus death rate is similar to that of influenza.

“Now that we have the facts,” said Dr. Erickson. “It’s time to get back to work.”
