Patriot News for May 2020!

I don't know about you, but I'm happy to see the end of April! Hopefully, May will bring some relief from the stresses and discomfort we have all been feeling in these days of confusion, misinformation, mismanagement, and hyperbole.

Ed and I have decided to dedicate this issue of the newsletter to COVID-19. The cacophony of disinformation has become overwhelming and our intention is to offer a logical presentation of some of the facts about this event as well as some humor to help keep things in perspective. We offer you our usual articles but as seen through the lens of this event.

The whole world has suffered untold despair and economic destruction so far in 2020. Some countries will be better able to recover in the coming months and we are confident that the United States will be one of those.

We hope that each of you remains healthy and calm as we navigate these unfamiliar and challenging waters together. There are better days ahead!
