

VIDEO: US postal workers interfere with vote by mail elections in Washington State

July 23, 2020

In Washington State, a candidate for state legislature brags about how postal workers were illegally assisting her election efforts by attaching her campaign literature to the mail-in ballots. What else are they doing to influence the vote? Washington State is all vote by mail.